The Illinois Construction Industry Legal Power Seminar – Fourth Annual

SmithAmundsen's construction and labor and employment groups invite you to a complimentary program on the laws and regulations impacting the construction industry in the coming year.

The program takes place at Gibsons Bar & Steakhouse in Oak Brook, IL on Thursday, January 17, 2019 at 8:30 AM and will review key legal issues and developments impacting the construction industry in 2019.

Who should attend? Construction Industry CEOs, COOs, CFOs, Accountants, Human Resource Managers, Safety Consultants, Claims Professionals and Risk Managers.

Topics to be discussed include the following:

8:00 AM – 8:30 AM: Registration and breakfast

8:30 AM – 8:45 AM: OSHA under the Trump Administration – OSHA's top priorities, new trends, and other legal developments under the Trump Administration. (Presented by Matt Horn)

8:45 AM – 9:15 AM: Understanding and Negotiating Important Provisions in Construction Contracts – A brief discussion and review of important provisions in Illinois construction contracts, along with suggestions for negotiating the provisions from all perspectives. (Presented by Matt Horn)

9:15 AM – 9:30 AM: Maintaining and Enforcing Labor Harmony on the Jobsite through the Construction Contract – With the ever growing pressures of completing the work on time and on budget, together with an increase in union and non-union mixed job sites, project managers, business owners, developers, contractors and general contractors need to review and revise their “standard” construction contracts to ensure all work is completed without disruption. (Presented by Jeff Risch)
