

Alphabetical Order: Defining and Using the Correct Terminology Within our LGBTQ Community

DRI's Diversity for Success Seminar and Corporate Expo; Chicago, IL
June 15, 2017 | 1:55PM - 2:50PM

The Defense Research Institute (DRI) hosts its 12th annual Diversity for Success Seminar and Corporate Expo at the Swissôtel Chicago, June 15-16. The event shows how diversity and inclusion can be used to expand law firm values, while increasing productivity, profitability, and client satisfaction. Creative strategies and cutting-edge dialogue are offered to help build and sustain meaningful diversity programs.

In a breakout session on June 15, Moses Suarez participates on a panel discussion entitled "Alphabetical Order: Defining and Using the Correct Terminology Within our LGBTQ Community." The panel addresses recent legislative changes concerning the LGBTQ community and steps to implement changes within law firm policies.
