

Guidance on Balancing the Reasonable Accommodation Process and the ADA/FMLA/Workers' Compensation Overlap

Clear Law Institute, Webinar
March 19, 2019 | 3:00 PM - 4:15 PM ET

Employers are now required to refocus their ADA compliance efforts on the reasonable accommodation process under the ADA. In this course, you will learn:

- How employers must broadly construe the term “disability”
- How employers must focus not on the condition but rather on how they can accommodate the condition and allow the employee to work
- How to handle common accommodation scenarios, such as working from home or on medical leave
- How to determine whether a specific request must be accommodated or when it can be considered an undue hardship
- How to handle common issues that arise involving the overlap of the ADA, the FMLA and workers’ compensation laws
