

Successfully Compelled Arbitration of Consumer Dispute

The client faced a putative class action lawsuit in Federal Court based on alleged improper lending practices. SmithAmundsen successfully moved the Court to enforce an arbitration clause and class action waiver against the plaintiff, effectively removing the class action allegations from the complaint and moving the matter into arbitration. Once in arbitration, SmithAmundsen again successfully opposed a subsequent motion to remove the case back to Federal Court

PROFESSIONALS

Molly A. Arranz
Partner

John Ochoa
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Class Action