

Successfully Defended a Nationwide Convenience Store and Gas Station Chain Against Premises Liability Claims

Henry Twomey successfully defended a nationwide convenience store and gas station chain against premises liability claims filed in Wisconsin state court. Following unsuccessful settlement negotiations, the case went to a jury trial. Henry served as first chair trial counsel and ultimately obtained a defense verdict. The jury found that the plaintiff was 75% at fault for the accident, resulting in a total bar to recovery.

PROFESSIONALS

Henry P. Twomey
Associate

RELATED SERVICES

General Liability