

Successfully Represented a Natural Gas Pipeline Company in Contentious Trial and Appeal

Debra Mastrian successfully represented a natural gas pipeline company in contentious trial and appeal involving numerous issues including whether a pipeline company's easement was partially extinguished by a landowner's adverse possession and whether the pipeline company owed a duty to the landowner to prevent damage to improvements placed in proximity to the pipeline when the pipeline held an open easement for maintenance purpose on the landowner's property.

PROFESSIONALS

Debra A. Mastrian
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Appellate
Real Estate, Zoning & Public
Finance